

SYLVIA ANN HEWLETT

OFF-RAMPS AND ON-RAMPS: KEEPING TALENTED WOMEN ON THE ROAD TO SUCCESS

Monday, May 7, 2007 • 5 PM – 6:30 PM
Boylston Hall, Fong Auditorium • Reception to follow
Harvard Yard, Cambridge

Dr. Sylvia Ann Hewlett, an expert on gender and workplace policy, will present highlights from her forthcoming book, Off-Ramps and On-Ramps: Keeping Talented Women on the Road to Success, followed by a panel discussion and question period. Hewlett is the founding president of the Center for Work-Life Policy, a non-profit organization that works to develop policies that enhance work-life balance. She is also director of the Gender and Policy Program at Columbia University. Hewlett has appeared on 60 Minutes, The Today Show, Good Morning America, NewsHour with Jim Lehrer, Charlie Rose, ABC World News, and Oprah. Dr. Hewlett is a graduate of Cambridge University and she earned her Ph.D. in economics at London University.

Featuring:

Evelynn Hammonds, Professor of the History of Science and of African and African American Studies and Senior Vice Provost for Faculty Development and Diversity, Harvard University (Host)

Marilyn Hausammann, Vice President for Human Resources, Harvard University

Kathleen McGinn, Cahners-Rabb Professor of Business Administration, Harvard Business School

Jeanne Shaheen, Former Governor of New Hampshire (1997-2003) and Director, Harvard University Institute of Politics

Moderated by

Melinda Merino, Executive Editor, Harvard Business School Press

Sponsored by

Harvard Business School Publishing

Office of the Senior Vice Provost for Faculty Development and Diversity

To learn more about this event (including directions and parking options), please visit the Faculty Affairs website www.faculty.harvard.edu/events.